

Canada's Energy Boom Means Careers for Engineers and Technologists

Engineers and technicians rise rapidly to the top of their professions with Canada's growing energy industries. A Canadian leader in engineering, procurement and construction for chemical and petroleum plants, we combine the resources of the SNC Group and Foster Wheeler to work on the frontiers of technology. We need able and experienced people in Canada.

Senior Project Managers

Senior and Intermediate Project Engineers and Engineering Managers

Senior and Intermediate Process Engineers

Senior and Intermediate Mechanical Engineers

experienced in rotating equipment, pressure vessel, piping design and specifications, heat transfer equipment, fired heaters

Senior and Intermediate Instrumentation Engineers

Senior and Intermediate Electrical Engineers

Senior and Intermediate Pipeline Engineers

Senior and Intermediate Cost Estimators, Senior Planners and Schedulers, Senior Cost Engineers and Cost Controllers

Senior Expeditors, Material Controllers,

Purchasing Agents, Subcontract Managers,

Traffic Managers and Inspectors with procurement experience on large projects

Senior and Intermediate Designer Draftspeople with experience in piping, instrumentation, pressure vessels, heat exchangers, fired heaters, electrical, pipelines

Senior and Intermediate Material Take-off Technicians experienced in piping, instrumentation, bulk materials and electrical work,

Candidates must have recognized technical and professional qualifications combined with a background in petrochemical and power generation projects.

At SNC/FW you will work in a dynamic company where a rapid rate of growth creates opportunities and in-house training is designed to help our staff climb the corporate ladder.

People from all over the world will carve out new careers in the energy booming Canada of the eighties. Will you?

Send detailed résumé to

SNC (UK) LTD.
3 Catherine Place
London, England
SW1E 6DJ

Interviews will be conducted in June in the UK